RADHE GOVINDA

Radhe Radhe Radhe Govinda

Radhe Radhe Radhe Bolo Radhe Govinda

Radhe/Radha is the supreme Goddess, the beloved of Krishna, the supreme worshipper, the embodiment of beauty and all the qualities of love, human and divine. She is an avatar of Lakshmi, the Divine Mother, the sustainer of all existence. Govinda is Krishna, the cowherd boy. He is the absolute, unmanifest source of all existence in the form of a beautiful dark-hued, flute-playing young man. He is Hari, the thief of hearts, the beloved of Radha.

Praising the divine couple, we awaken that love within ourselves, in the forest of our own hearts, where we meet our beloved in the stillness of the night.
